

Curriculum vitae

Prof. Dr. med. Ulrich Wolf Buettner

Since 1998	Married to Heidi Liehner Two children from first marriage
01.06 1947	Born in Lüneburg /Germany, married, two children
1953	Primary school in Oberhausen/Germany
1954-1958	Grown up in Brasil (Araruama und Niteroi) with local primary and secondary schools
1958-1966	Dortmund/Germany, graduation from high school
1966-1972	Studies of medicine at Köln, Berlin, Wien Degrees from the University of Heidelberg
1970-1974	Further studies with grants from the “Studienstiftung des Deutschen Volkes”, diploma in physics
1973	MD at the „Freie Universität Berlin”
1974-1978	Postdoc at the department of neurophysiology in Berlin (O.-J. Grüsser) and Zürich (V. Henn)
1978-1994	Dept. neurology Tübingen (J. Dichgans): residency, neurologist, clinical neurophysiology, and basic oculomotor research with grants of the “Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft”
1984	“Habilitation” for neurology
1988 and 1991	sabbaticals at Johns-Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore (D. S. Zee)
1990	„Ausserplanmässiger Professor“ (Tübingen)
Since 1995	Head of the department of neurology Kantonsspital Aarau/Switzerland
1996	„Titularprofessor” at the University of Zurich
2012	Retirement as head of department

Main clinical and research interests.

1. Oculomotor and vestibular system
2. Clinical neurophysiology (evoked potentials)
3. Pain research and pain therapy